Recruitment Procedure

BIEWU International follows a very systematic and strategic approach towards recruitment of a candidate.

1. Signing the Agreement: An agreement has to be signed between the client and the agency stating the various terms and conditions clearly and accepting those. It includes the norms regarding supply of manpower from the various countries we bring candidates from.
2. Working Closely to Know the Requirements: We largely emphasize on understanding the various requirements of our clients first so that we can provide them with the candidate having maximum potential. Our team discusses details to offer a personalised service and ensure positive relationship is maintained between us.
3. Document Submission: Once we are on with the project, our clients need to submit the necessary documents to go by the legal procedure.

1. Pre-Selection Procedure –

While we already have a ready database of job seekers whom we recommend as per their skills, the pre-selection procedure mainly involves filtering candidates based on – a. Competency b. Knowledge c. Capability d. Experience e. Performance

2. Selection Procedure –

The final selection is done after the employer or his authorised representative interacts with the candidate we offer. We shall provide all the support regarding logistics and other arrangements for this purpose. Here, documentation is also an important factor in the final selection process. It includes submission of visa, passport, photograph, bio-data, academic qualification, health certificate, etc. However, we also check for authenticity of the papers ensuring a clean record of the employees.

3. Deployment of Candidates

Once the employee passes through these procedures successfully, we arrange for their deployment. Our team shall get emigration clearance from the government of the candidate's country.

Our team also keeps the client updated about the procedure regarding deployment so that they can pick employees from the right place. We would finally take a confirmation from you if you have received them. In every way, BIEWU International makes sure you are served with top-notch service for highest satisfaction
